Columbia is intent on following Jesus' command to love one's neighbor as oneself (Mark 12:28-31). For this reason, the school does not discriminate on the basis of race, sex, color, or national origin in the administration of its policies, scholarships, athletics, and other school-related programs. Columbia admits students of any race, color, or national origin to all the rights, privileges, programs, and activities generally accorded or made available to all full-time students.
